RUSSELLVILLE, ARKANSAS
The Diary of Joe College

AS TOLD TO JIMMIE HEATH

September 4-9. The beanery and dormitories open. What a crowd of freshmen are here; Their main problem in etiquette is how to make the beans stay on their knife—any sophomore could tell them to dip the knife in zip. Boy, these teachers are busy registering these cravers of knowledge and otherwise. A guy in a green cap wants to know what an I. Q. is. Tech looks like a new school with all its improvements. The mill of registration is still grinding away. These freshmen girls are the apple of my eye. Kinda different. The one thing that should be left out of college started today—those darned classes. The freshmen are hopping to the tune of the upperclassmen. The faculty reception and dances started the social progress of the Alma Mater in an interesting way. Math and Public Speaking should be popular courses.

September 9-15. First date night. Do these freshmen girls look swanky? Got into Uncle Sam's Army today but when I had to get up in the middle of the night for drill can't say I was so enthusiastic about it.

September 22-30. The gridiron is a busy place. Our prospects for the year look great. First pep meeting held in armory—not so bad. Romance in K progressing in a big way. First date with Miss Co-ed.

October 1-6. Murder in Rue South; Poor Baltimore. Night football starts; the lights were under construction, but nevertheless. Big pep meeting for the Arkansas College game—did those freshmen look swanky in full dress—for bed. Party at Carl's Place.

October 7-13. Defeated Arkansas College 93-0. Party in Spook House. Went to the big pep meeting on Buerkle field. The bonfire was spectacular. Went to the Homecoming game with my little so and so. Hendrix 6—Tech 7. Big dance after the game.

October 14-21. Am getting my machine gun in shape to operate on a big blond for courting my gal. When the storm is over and those black clouds show their silver lining, isn't it great. Circus Day—one Coyote missing. Sneak parties originate in the library. (Indulged instead of a sweet. Pep meeting. Romance improving. Saw the team off to Magnolia.

Arkansas Polytechnic College
October 22-31. Magnolia nosed us out 7-0. Attended a night football game. Don’t know who won. Pep meeting. Coach stops the football men from walking with the femmes. Extraordinary pep meeting in Armory. Everyone cut 11 o’clock classes. Henderson defeated us 7-0. Went to dance that night and was it a doodle. Work started on the new athletic field. Big Carnival in town. I’d like to set one of those grass skirts on fire. Cherokee Bill goes on a raid. Party at Sallie’s. Went hiking. M. E. J. sprains ankle at night game, probably due to a long end run. The Goblins were at the play on Hallowe’en. Y. W. C. A. has party.

November 1-7. Vanquished the blond enemy after so long. Quit my job. Freshmen have spasmodic meeting. Caskey and Roosevelt win. Pep meeting. Went on a picnic, what fun. Dads Day was a success, defeated Teachers 26-0. Jeffries is injured. Went on a hike to Beaumont. Aren’t these labs a pain.

November 8-14. Pep meeting for Armistice Day game. Tech goes to Little Rock on special train. We tie Ouachita 0-0. Gee, wasn’t it cold on those bleachers. I will always remember the house of many gables. On the return trip the lights were out in the coaches. What a day. Oh, my Gosh. Band broadcasts over KGH. Annual staff members selected. Went to the rocks on the Arkansas river and had a steak broil.

November 15-22. The freshmen have revolted, now was that nice. Squabble over Thanksgiving Holidays. Freshmen won’t run belt line. This revolt is beginning to look like war. Ed’s don’t forget this, “Watch those home town sweethearts.” F. F. A. Convention. Glee Clubs and Dramatic Clubs make their first appearance. They’re good.

November 23-30. Romance dragging. Tech defeats the Boll Weevils 13-6 in a good game. Thanksgiving Holidays begin. Another victory for Tech. We defeated C. of O. 20-6. Don’t funny reports get out. Polly King visits us, and are we glad. God giv us justice, the great Jeffries is *?oae.

December 1-8. Big football game, the Mules vs. the Bulls. The Queen is crowned; both bands play. Had my beauty snapped for the Annual today. Night games are getting chilly. New fence around Buerkle field. We all mourn the loss of our friend Hugh Wright.

December 9-31. Went to the battery dance; it was the best of the year. Basketball men report. This sleet and snow is terrible. Y. W. C. A. banquet at the Palace Hotel. Football Dance at the country club; can those boys throw a dance? Almost got my girl campused for being late. Won our first basketball game from Spokane, Mo. Independents, 33-26. Bade the old school good bye for the Christmas Holidays.

January 1-15. The big return. A Ghost in Main building. T Association picnic. This foolishness has got to stop. You go your way and I’ll go mine after this last dance. The Warriors defeat us, 29-28, at basketball.

PURITY ICE CREAM
Its Flavor is Delicious
WE CATER TO PARTIES

PURITY ICE CREAM COMPANY
January 16-31. Semester exams. What’s the matter with the Sophomore Engineers. The boys give the girls a serenade. Exams end. I heard something about a chain gang today. The track season holds promises for success. A committee from the legislature visits us. Our basketball team is doing well. Boojing as practiced at Tech is the last word in perfection. The girls basketball team is working well.

February 1-10. Campus beauties nominated. Science Club holds initiation. Drastic meeting of discipline committee. Road scholarships presented. A fox hunt is organized. No love have I. Criswell, Langley, Henderson, Churchill, and Spencer leave for Arkansas University. We will certainly miss those boys.

February 11-28. And now we’re back together again” is my these song. Debating is now in the shaping process. Gardner elected president of the Student Council. Parties galore. Penthouses are swell. The gang took some pictures today. Six weeks exams.

March 1-15. Student Council elected. The whole school mourns the death of our little friend, Jennie Bess Storey. Dramatic club throws a bridge party. Cut chapel to do a little courting. Russian chorus renders a delightful program. Laurant, the magician, mystifies us. Suerkle field is a busy place with the track team, baseball team, and football team all in action.

April 1-12. Overall dance in the armory. What spirit, maybe I should say spirits. Dating bureau established. Engineers party a success, ask Lance. Our Science Club really knows how to throw a picnic. Spent Sunday afternoon at the dam with my one and only. Y. W. C. A. has party. Tech wins a track meet from Hendrix.

April 13-21. Spring Holidays begin. Harriet Calloway has a snappy orchestra. Mary Ellen didn’t get any Easter eggs. The gang goes to Van Buren for the spring holidays. Spring fever is raging over the campus. Who said Dorothy Fountain wasn’t a swell baby?

April 22-30. Big dance in the mule barn! All the Agris were there. It is a break to have a girl taking cooking. The plans for the new Boys’ dormitory are great; wish I was coming back next year. Spent a delightful day in the park—not alone. Our track team lost to Ouachita by one point but won from Monticello. Went to the Freshman-Sophomore picnic held at the Country Club. Couldn’t stand more than one a month like that. The faculty has never treated us better.

May—. Did we win the State track meet, and how—47 1/2 to Ouachita’s 33, with the other colleges trailing far behind. Dramatic Club presents an interesting one-act play. Agri Day went over in a big way. Graduation days are here. THE END.

The year is gone and the chapter closed. We can only re-live the past in memory. May this closed volume be re-opened many times and the scenes of happiness flash across our minds. May we oft live again the days at Tech.
