It is with genuine regret that we come to the end of the school year with the thought in mind that we are to leave most of the sophomores, among whom are to be found our closest friends. A few will remain united in attendance at other colleges while the rest will have only memories of their friends at Tech. Good luck to all of you, wherever you may go, whatever you may do.

With the close of the school year, we wish to extend to the freshmen of this year our congratulations on your successes and our best wishes for the coming year at Tech. May you continue as you have started, and carry on the Tech spirit.

—SOPHOMORES.

And don’t be too hard on the freshmen next year. (Editor’s note).
